

ACTIVITIES FOR CHILDREN

LIBRARY BADGES

Encourage young library patrons to explore the library by participating in the Library Badges game!

What you will need: printer paper ($3.00) = $3.00

Step 1) Print copies of the Badges on cardstock or computer paper. Cut out each badge and paste the paper on a piece of cardboard or wood.

Step 2) Print a few copies of the Badge Tasks template.

Step 3) Leave the Badge Game instructions at your desk and encourage children to participate!

Activity takes approximately 30 – 60 minutes.

September 29 - October 5, 2019

Badge Game

Show the librarian that you've finished the following tasks to collect your badges!

- 1 Show the librarian your favourite book written by an Indigenous author.
- 2 Say the word "library" in an Indigenous language.
- 3 Find a piece of litter or recycling and put it in the trash can!
- 4 Find a book about animals and tell the librarian something new that you learned!
- 5 Bring a friend or family member to the library.
- 6 Tell the librarian what book you wish the library had in the collection.
- 7 Read a book you have never read before, and tell the librarian about the story.
