FIRST NATIONS PUBLIC LIBRARY WEEK

SEPT. 29 - OCT. 5, 2019

Join us at the library throughout the first week of October as we celebrate Revitalizing Indigenous Languages.

Activities will be taking place throughout the week.

Free! All are welcome!

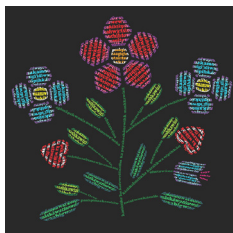

Each year during the first week of October, public libraries across the province celebrate First Nations Public Library Week. This year the theme is “Revitalizing Indigenous Languages.”

Did you know that there are 47 First Nation libraries in the Province of Ontario?

Help us plan for the future of our library by filling out the following pledge card and returning it to the library.
